

Bryan Lentz spoke to us about the Congressional election this fall; he's running for the seat being vacated by Joe Sestak. Bryan, who is a member of the Swarthmore Rotary Club, told us about his background, including his education, military service, & legal & public service career. Bryan graduated from Valley Forge Military Academy prior to attending Georgetown University on a Military Scholarship. Upon completion of his schooling at Georgetown, he served as an officer in the 82nd Airborne Division of the US Army. After tours in Bosnia & Yugoslavia, he returned to the states & attended Temple Law School. He worked in Philadelphia for 6 years as a prosecutor, dealing mostly with violent crimes & gang activity prosecutions. Bryan remained in the Army reserve & in 2004 was called back to active duty; he deployed to Mosul, Iraq, as a commander of his brigade. Bryan has served as a State Representative for the past 3½ years & hopes to continue his political career as Congressman Lentz. Bryan also took time for questions prior to the meeting ending.

We appreciate the time Bryan spent with us today, telling us about his views & positions on crucial issues in this election year. Bryan has several town hall-style meetings set up to talk to voters, including this Saturday, August 28th, at Brookhaven Borough Hall.
