

Concert for Peace

Brothers in Harmony, led by director Jack Pinto, performed A Concert for Peace, on September 20 at the Friends Center original Philadelphia Meetinghouse. This event was to raise funds for the peace, health, and education efforts of the Madrugadores Rotary Club. Music by this men's chorus from Hamilton Square, NJ included "When I Lift Up My Head," "With A Little Help from My Friends," "Imagine" and "God Bless the USA," as well as some spirited selections by four physicians, the Docapella Quartet. The sound in this extraordinary historic space was truly superb!

Organizations collaborating and contributing to the Rotary Club's first Concert for Peace included the United Nations Association of Greater Philadelphia, the Society of Ibero Latin American Medical Professionals, and Partners of the Americas' Citizen Effect Sustainable Network. A reception following the concert was catered by Gavin's Cafe and coordinated by Diana Larisgoitia.
